

Capital of France Wild with Delight Over Victory

THE PLACE DE L'OPERA IN PARIS WAS CROWDED ON NOV. 11, 1918, WHEN THE BAND OF THE GARDE REPUBLICAINE INCREASED THE FRENZY OF PATRIOTIC FEELING BY PLAYING THE "MARSEILLAISE" AND "THE SAMBRE AND THE MEUSE."

THE DEMONSTRATIONS IN PARIS CONTINUED ALL THE NIGHT. AMERICAN SOLDIERS, WITH A SPRINKLING OF FRENCH BROTHERS IN ARMS, ARE HERE PARADING THE STREETS IN AN AMERICAN ARMY TRUCK TO EXPRESS THEIR JOY OVER THE END OF THE WAR.
